ABOUT TOWN.

A meeting will be held in the Catholic Hall this evening under the auspices of the Cleveland and Hendricks Club.

George Greacen, the street sprinkler, has discontinued the business and moved to Spring Valley, N. Y., where he will enter into business.

The pastor of the Baptist Church proposes to preach Sunday night on the subject, "For whom shall we vote: or, a plea for Jesus."

Upper Library Hall will be the headquarters of the Republican Club for the balance of the campaign and will be open every evening.

It having been rumored that Library Hall was unsafe, competent masons and builders have examined the same and pronounced it perfectly safe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maxfield, Miss Jennie Maxfield, Mrs. Wm. P. Hague and Miss Laura Robinson are spending two weeks of the loveliest month in the year at Ocean Grove, N. J.

A meeting was held in the Watseman wigwam last evening, addressed by R. Wayne Parker, of Newark, and Hon. John W. Griggs, of Paterson. The band was present and furnished music for the occasion.

The Earliest Beginnings of Bloomfield in the "New Yorker" Church-Town will be the subject of the first lecture of the Autumn course at the Seminary, and will be on Tuesday evening, October 7th, by Rev. Chas. E. Knox.

The New York Telegraph Advocate of October first contained the following: "E. T. Frisbie, operator at Eighty-ninth street, Third avenue station, died at his house in California, on September 29th. Mr. Frisbie was operator at this place three years ago."

The value of advertising in the CITIZEN is clearly shown by the following incident: Last week a Bloomfield man lost an envelope containing some deeds to property; an advertisement was sent to the CITIZEN, the deeds were found and were returned to the owner before the paper was issued.

At the regular meeting of the Westminster Church trustees this evening, final arrangements will be made for the winter course of lectures, etc. The course will open about November 15th. Due announcement will be made by advertisement in this paper.

Rev. S. W. Duffield is giving a series of lecture-sermons on Sunday evenings in Westminster Church, on the "Spiritual World and Man's Spiritual Nature," as revealed to us in Scripture. Last Sunday evening his subject was "Angels"; next week it will be on "Demons" or "Devils." The subjects are treated in a conservative spirit, without any attempt at sensation.

There will be a meeting of the Women's Foreign Mission Society at the Baptist Church next Thursday, Oct. 9th. The morning session will begin at 10:30 o'clock, and the afternoon meeting at 2 o'clock. The society has branches in many of the Baptist churches in this State, being auxiliary to the National Women's Baptist Foreign Mission Society, which is doing a large and important work. The forthcoming meeting will be one of special interest. Addresses, papers, recitations and singing will be comprised in the programme. The meeting will be open to all women who desire to attend. All will be heartily welcomed.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Rivers' Dancing School.

Justice Hagemann's calendar of civil suits has been unusually large of late.

An extension of ninety-six feet has been made to the Glenridge station platform.

The Knights of Pythias Lodge was organized and officers installed, on Tuesday evening, in this place.

Mr. Wm. C. Carlo will preside at the organ, at the S. S. Teacher's Convention, to be held in the First Presbyterian Church next Wednesday.

Carl Gottschalk was cutting hay a few days ago, when his left hand came in contact with the knives and nearly severed a finger.

Mr. Joseph Teloubet has a night blooming cereus which flowered on Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week. Each flower remained open from 8 to 12 o'clock.

Ex-Constable Richard J. Maxwell was tried before Justice Hagemann on Friday evening last, for committing an assault on August Fischer, and was held to wait the action of the Grand Jury.

The Butler and West Club held a meeting in Dodd's Hall, on Monday evening, which was addressed by Col. Norton, of Chicago, and Lewis F. Post. Among the audience were a number of Democratic bolters.

At a meeting of officers of the Republican Club, held on Sept. 29, the resignation of Major G. T. Moore was accepted, and Mr. Richard Handy unanimously elected to fill said vacancy.

Through the kindness of a number of ladies and other friends of the Lehlbach Engineer Corps, a handsome silk banner has been purchased and made for the company, and was used for the first time on Thursday evening in the Orange parade.

Rev. S. W. Duffield will, by request, deliver a lecture in Westminster Church on Wednesday evening, October 15th. Subject: "Tom Hood, Poet and Punster."

This is the same lecture that was delivered in Montclair last winter.

John Porter was walking through Montgomery street Tuesday night, and when in front of the residence of Mr. George Wood, he struck his foot against a stump near the lamp post and fell to the sidewalk, breaking his collar bone. Dr. Davis attended him.

The Lehlbach Engineer Corps held a meeting, on Tuesday evening, and promoted John Sanderson, Second Lieutenant, to First, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Richard Handy. Horace Dodd, Jr., Orderly Sergeant, was promoted to Second Lieutenant, and Ernest H. Cadmus elected Orderly Sergeant.

Colonel F. W. Davis, now Under-Sheriff, is seeking the nomination on the Republican ticket for Sheriff. The Colonel is well known here and is a frequent visitor to our town. He has been connected with the Sheriff's office for a number of years, and has made warm friends by the efficient manner in which he has filled that position.

The Cleveland and Hendricks Campaign Club will hold a meeting in Union Hall, on State street, this evening, at 8 o'clock. Addresses will be made by Judge Louis Hood, Hon. Samuel MacDonald and Hon. Julius C. Fitzgerald. All citizens are invited, irrespective of party. A stirring meeting is expected.

The gathering in the Westminster parlors last Monday evening is reported to have been tip-top. Reading and singing with music on the piano and violin, constituted a part of the entertainment; but not content with "a feast of reason and a flow of soul," the young folks treated each other to material refreshments and then went home happy.

The collector is a busy man nowadays. More than $7,000 was taken in on the 30th, making the collections $28,000 up to October 1st. This is more than half the tax duplicate and considerably ahead of collections in past years. The people from Brookdale are backward about coming forward, having gone to see a lawyer. The 2 per cent. discount has proved profitable. There is still one per cent. discount to October 20th.

A Glenridge gentleman, in running for the 7:57 a. m. train, Tuesday morning, attempted to board the car next to the rear just as it was leaving the depot. Having run from his house, he was so near exhausted that he could not mount the steps and was dragged feet a distance of nearly three hundred feet before the train was brought to a standstill. When rescued from his dangerous position he was badly in need of a new pair of pants.

Charles W. Powers, Sr., aged 65 years, died on Sunday night, after a long sickness. A few years ago, Mr. Powers was one of the most prominent business men of this place, being the proprietor of the planing and sawmill adjacent to the D. L. & W. Depot. Business reverses made it necessary to abandon the enterprise. This was soon followed by sickness, which has been slowly claiming its victim for several years. Mr. Powers was a prominent member of the Baptist Church during his active life, and served the Sabbath School faithfully as a Superintendent. The funeral services were held at the residence of his son, C. W. Powers, Jr., on Linden avenue, on Wednesday. The wife of the deceased was buried but a few weeks ago.

Township Committee.

The Township Committee met on Wednesday and voted to give the contract for laying a stone road on part of Broad street to C. E. McDowell, his bid being lower than the others. Bids were received for laying a stone walk, but were held until the next meeting.

The Committee still decided to hold out against the Gas Company, and refused to make any contract until the Company will comply with their request and supply Washington and Ridgewood avenues with gas, and further reduce the price. The Committee will review the walks which are to be flagged next Wednesday. The Township Council was instructed to notify the D. L. & W. R. R. Company to station a flagman or erect gates at the Glenwood avenue crossing.

Opening the New Kennels of the Essex County Hunt.

Along the forest-skirted road that leads over the Orange Mountains, gorgeous with the hues of autumn, around the turnpike from Montclair, and up from Llewellyn Park, long rows of elegantly appointed equipages were rolling all Wednesday afternoon down to St. Cloud, in the valley, where the festivities of the opening of the new kennels of the Essex County Hunt were celebrated. Tall, four-in-hand coaches, with silver-mounted axles and flashing harness, the top covered with merry young people; gay drags, with guards in rich livery; open barouches, with statesque driver and footman; dog carts and village carts with silver lamps, and every species of modern vehicle known to the carriage maker's art turned in before the club house at the base of the mountain, where three roads join, and were received by Mr. E. P. Thebaud, the master of hounds, who was attired in hunting costume of scarlet and buff. Mr. Thebaud passed his guests over to the lady patronesses of the hunt, who took them in to an afternoon tea. These ladies were Mrs. George B. McClellan, Mrs. Paul L. Thebaud, Mrs. George F. Hecker, Mrs. Olivia Sumner Teall, Mrs. Frederick M. Wheeler and Mrs. Henry N. Munn.

A meet of the hounds was announced for 4:15 o'clock, and long before that time the club rooms were full, the verandas were occupied, and scores of chairs dotted the lawn. There were a great many members of other hunts present, among them riders of both sexes of the Rockaway, Rosetree, Elk Ridge, Meadow Brook and Miopa Clubs.

At about 4:30 o'clock the huntsmen galloped up the road that wound about the mountain to start the chase on the other side. Then the thousand spectators went out into the field and watched the mountain side for the hounds and riders to appear. An hour passed and nothing was seen of them. The sun went down behind the mountain. Then a few of the huntsmen and some of the horsewomen, who had gone with the hounds, came back by the way they had gone and announced that the throw-off had taken place. Half an hour later the hounds came into view on the slope of a hill a mile to the south, and after them the scarlet coats of the hunters appeared among the trees. On they came, the horses close behind the dogs, and the whole troop occasionally lost to sight behind the hills or down in the valley. Over fences, ditches, hedges and walls came the pack, the huntsmen hard behind them, and everything promised a beautiful finish until the dogs lost the trail, only two fields away, and made the wind-up very tame. Mrs. Douglas Robinson, the only lady who kept up with the hounds, was cheered as she put her horse over the last fence.

The next meet of the Essex County hounds will be on Saturday, at the residence of George F. Hecker, in St. Cloud.
